3 “SECTION 26g. 66.0213 (4) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 66.0213 (4) (b) The election shall be conducted as prescribed by ch. 6, ~~except~~ 5 ~~that no registration of voters may be required.~~ The inspectors shall make returns
6 to the clerk of the circuit court who shall, within ~~one week~~ 14 days after the election,
7 canvass the returns and declare the result. The clerk shall notify the officers–elect
8 and issue certificates of election. If the first election is on the first Tuesday in April 9 the officers elected and their appointees shall commence and hold their offices as for 10 a regular term. Otherwise they shall commence within ~~10~~ 14 days and hold their 11 offices until the regular village or city election and the qualification of their 12 successors and the terms of their appointees expire as soon as successors qualify.

13 SECTION 26r. 66.0215 (9) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 66.0215 (9) FIRST CITY ELECTION. Within 10 days after incorporation of the city, 2 the town board and the town clerk who received the petition shall fix a time for the 3 first city election, designate the polling place or places, and name 3 inspectors of 4 election for each place. Ten days' previous notice of the election shall be given by the 5 clerk by publication in the newspapers selected under sub. (3) and by posting notices
6 in 3 public places in the city. Failure to give notice does not invalidate the election.
7 The election shall be conducted as is prescribed by chs. 5 to 12, ~~except that no~~
8 ~~registration of voters may be required.~~ The inspectors shall make returns to the 9 board which shall, within ~~one week~~ 14 days after the election, canvass the returns
10 and declare the result. The clerk shall notify the officers-elect and issue certificates 11 of election. If the first election is on the first Tuesday in April the officers elected and 12 their appointees commence and hold their offices as for a regular term. Otherwise 13 they commence within ~~10~~ 14 days and hold until the regular city election and the 14 qualification of their successors, and the term of their appointees expires as soon as 15 successors qualify.”
